Summary project

The Museum 1212 Enns will deal exclusively with the history of the town of Enns. This will also create a new venue and a new meeting zone for the residents of Enns. It represents an identification offer for the people in the region. Moreover the new exhibition will be a touristic attraction because it is located in the famous Castle of Ennsegg. This Museum offers a whole new experience for the guests of Enns combining innovative and modern presentation with unique historical ambience.

Goal project

The goal of the project is the opening of a museum which shows the historic development of Enns from settlement in this region from early history to the urban evolution during medieval period up to the present. The presentation of our cultural knowledge is dedicated to an innovative and inclusive approach.

Result project

Result of the project will be enhanced value and greater attractiveness of Enns as cultural location. Furthermore, teachers and students from the region and from all over country are welcome to discover and experience the history of the oldest town of Austria.
